JABIR IBN SAMURAH REPORTED:

“ I SAW THE MESSENGER OF ALLAH ﷺ ON A CLEAR NIGHT WHILE HE WAS WEARING A RED CLOAK. I TURNED MY SIGHT BETWEEN HIM AND THE MOON AND, TO ME, he was more handsome & beautiful than the moon.”

Loving & Learning Shama'il

Al-Shama'il al-Muhammadiyya (The Sublime Qualities of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ) is the most famous collection of narrations detailing the moral, physical and spiritual perfections of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. Commonly referred to as 'The Shama'il' and compiled by the prolific Imam al-Tirmidhī, this perennial masterpiece connects hearts to the Prophet's blessed being ﷺ.

The Shama'il generously invites us to experience the most detailed and exquisite qualities of the message-bearer—the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. This knowledge fundamentally alters, informs, and orients our understanding of the Message he brought. Knowing the Shama'il is a critical pre-requisite to properly understanding Islam in general and the Prophet's ﷺ life (Sira) in particular; his beautiful appearance, lifestyle and character provide the ultimate context for developing a deep, holistic appreciation of the Message and the Messenger at the same time.

Without understanding the Shama'il, we're likely to read Islam and the Prophet's ﷺ life through the lenses of our own socially-conditioned impressions and assumptions. Instead, the Shama'il leaves a profound and indelible impression that spiritually empowers us to apply Islam to our lives.

Knowing the Shama'il is a tried and true means of filling our hearts with reverence for the Prophet ﷺ, which, in turn, fills our hearts with reverence for his Sacred Law. A form of praise in its own right, it provides a deep look into the Prophet's ﷺ sublime beauty and serves as a means of connection, veneration and spiritual transformation. The Shama'il offers us tastes of delight and joy, and most importantly, engenders sincere love of Allah and His Messenger ﷺ in our hearts. To spend time with the Shama'il is to praise Allah and remember Him, for it is He who endows His beloved ﷺ with beautiful form and unparalleled character.

Imam Fadiyah Mian

Approximately two decades ago, New Jersey mom of 4 and educator Imam Fadiyah Mian embarked on the journey of a lifetime to study Islamic Sciences in Syria. During this period, she completed her training in tajwid and received her ijaza from the late Shaykh Muḥyī al-Dīn al-Kurdī (may Allah be pleased with him) and currently teaches tajwid through Ribaata. While there, Imam Fadiyah also studied under the guidance of Dr. Tamara Gray. Imam Fadiyah is one of the graduates of the first graduating class of Ribaata. Through her work, Imam Fadiyah found spiritual grounding and increased blessings in her time and her life. Imam Fadiyah also volunteers as the beloved Masjid Rabata Imam, providing guidance to Muslim women from around the world about the practical elements of spiritual worship and personal growth.

Anse Marah Dahman

Anse Marah grew up in Syria, where she studied tafsir, hadith, tajwid, and other Islamic Sciences. She now lives in Tampa, Florida, where in addition to working as a dentist, she teaches at her local Masjid and is a mom of three. Anse Marah was greatly influenced by her teachers in Syria, whom she remembers as open, kind, patient, and wise. "My teacher made things easy on us and put the world into perspective," she said. "All our teachers spent so much time bringing us up.

I am excited to be able to pay that debt forward by teaching at Ribaat."

Anse Marah has been teaching Islamic Science courses with Ribaat since its inception in 2013.

Anse Nishat Lal

Raised in Cardiff, Wales, and a born Muslim of Indian descent, Anse Nishat began studying Arabic at age 14, which was her springboard to receiving Bachelor's degrees in Arabic and History from the University of London. She then traveled to Syria for her third year of study, where she met Anse Tamara Gray, earned her ijaza in tajwid, and studied at the University of Damascus. Upon her return to England, she earned a Master's degree in Arabic Translation from the School of Oriental and African Studies in London, after which she got married and now has two little children. Anse Nishat has taught both Arabic and tajwid online extensively as well as in person. "Learning Arabic is the key to the vast treasures of Islam, and I'm excited to help students begin their journey into the Quran and other Islamic texts with confident foundations."

Anse Nishat has been teaching Arabic with Ribaata since 2014. She also works with tajwid students one-on-one as part of the Quran Program and teaches Sira in her local community.

Anse Hafsa Abdul-Hakeem

Born and raised in Georgia and now living in New Jersey, Anse Hafsa has been a lifelong seeker of Sacred Knowledge. She began her studies in her youth with local scholars and later was able to travel overseas to pursue deeper studies in Tarim Yemen, Jordan, and Egypt. She holds certifications in topics such as Tajwid, Fiqh, and Arabic grammar. Her hopes to pursue Islamic scholarship continued when she heard about Rabata and was recommended to jump on the wave by her community teachers. She found through Ribaata a means that connected her to the legacy of Muslim women's scholarship and leadership.

She graduated with the first Ribaata cohort, earning the Ribaata Teacher Certification. She is still studying but also enjoying family life, teaching, and working in the non-profit sector in social services. She has been a Ribaata Tajwid teacher since 2020 and is a teacher with Dragonflies, Rabata's youth program.
