

Ribaat Academic Institute

2025 IMPACT

The Ribaat Academic Institute provides traditional Islamic education through modern educational methodologies for women around the world. This program journeys through a comprehensive curriculum where students may pursue certification or take classes independently to increase their Islamic learning as adults. Courses are offered in fields of Islamic study such as aqida, sira, fiqh, hadith, tafsir, tajwid, Arabic, and more. Ribaat aims to prepare teachers, scholars, and community stewards who can benefit their local and digital communities.

RabaTEENS

2025 IMPACT

RabaTEENS is a fun, meaningful, and creative program designed for Muslim girls ages 12 to 17. Students enroll in mini-mester courses that meet online once a week for five weeks. At RabaTEENS, Muslim teen girls are able to connect with mentors and friends who help them grow confidently and comfortably into their faith. These classes bring mentorship, confidence, and camaraderie into the lives of our future generations.

Daybreak Press

2025 IMPACT

Daybreak Press publishes for purpose. The project shifted from simply publishing the work of Muslim women to fill a void in the literary landscape to building an intellectual legacy of Islamic literature in English by finding, mentoring, and publishing Muslim women thinkers, scholars, and creatives. Daybreak Press authors make profound contributions to knowledge and society, and Daybreak Press books regularly receive awards and international acclaim across genres.

Halaqat

2025 IMPACT

The halaqa (learning circle) represents a gathering where individuals unite to seek knowledge, find kinship, and deepen their connection with their faith. In the digital age, Rabata's Halaqat program takes this timeless practice and brings it to women across the globe. The program's multilevel halaqat follow a structured curriculum—designed by qualified traditional women scholars—that offers a comprehensive learning experience.

Development

2025 IMPACT

RabataCare serves as a bridge between Muslims who pay zakat and women who are in need. The RabataCare program adheres to tamlík, meaning 100% of zakat donations are provided to the recipients. The majority of RabataCare recipients are convert women in need, providing them security in not only their faith, but their new community of believers.
